In order to register your child/children for Religious School, we need to have the completed, signed Registration Form, along with a deposit of $100 per child.

There are several, convenient payment options available:

- A- You may choose to pay the Religious School tuition in full by check or debit/credit card by June 15, 2011, and receive a $25 per child tuition discount.
- B- You may choose to pay $100 Deposit (per child) at the Regular School Tuition rate and then divide the balance over the next six months, starting with the July 1st billing statement. It is our expectation that Religious School tuition be paid in full no later than December 30, 2011.

There are 2 methods of payment that you can use for option B:

- 1- Complete the credit/debit card authorization portion on the payment form included with your packet and we will do a monthly credit card charge to your designated account. Visa, MasterCard, Discover and American Express are all welcome.
- 2- Complete the bank draft authorization portion on the payment form included with your packet and we will do a monthly EFT (Electronic Funds Transfer), which makes a direct deduction from your checking account.

 Please note that Religious School fees, as well as all Temple financial commitments, must be paid IN FULL for the prior year before we can allow you to register for the 2011-2012 School Year. **

Please complete the worksheet below to figure out your tuition for the 2011-2012 school year.

NOTE: All Youth Group Dues Must Be Paid In Full With Your Deposit.

Congregation Ner Tamid Religious School
STUDENT CODE OF RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Parents, teachers and children work together to create the best possible learning environment at Congregation Ner Tamid. Each group is asked to focus on the rights and responsibilities they have in creating the ideal Temple community. We recognize the following individual rights and responsibilities:

- The right to feel safe and the responsibility to make sure others feel safe.
- The right to be respected as an individual and the responsibility to respect others.
- The right to use the Temple and its grounds and the responsibility to protect them.

To participate in the Congregation Ner Tamid school community, parents and students must affirm the following:

1. I am responsible for making this a safe environment. Some of the ways I can help to create a safe environment are:

- I will keep my hands, my feet and objects to myself.
- I will walk safely inside the Temple building.
- I will only bring safe objects to Temple.
- I will be where I am expected to be when I am expected to be there.
- I will keep our school community a drug, alcohol and tobacco free environment.
- All of my actions will be safe for me and others.

2. I am responsible for making sure people respect each other. Some of the ways I can help to create a respectful environment are:

- I will speak kindly to others and will not say hurtful things.
- I will listen when others are speaking and will expect others to listen to me.
- I will wait my turn to speak and will not interrupt others.
- I will do my best to make sure that nobody feels left out.
- I will respect responsible requests of my teachers and other adults.
- I will support Congregation Ner Tamid's Religious School activities and will not disrupt them.
- I will treat the belongings of others with respect.
- All of my interactions with others will be respectful.

3. I am responsible for taking care of my Temple building and everything in and around it. Some of the ways I can take care of the Temple are:

- I will leave the bathrooms clean and neat.
- I will clean up my work area and put away all materials.
- I will keep books, walls and furniture free from writing and other forms of damage.
- I will leave chewing gum, baseball caps and sunglasses at home.
- All of my behaviors will reflect appropriate respect for Temple.

Judaism is founded upon a covenant between God and the Jewish people. Our Temple community is also founded on the same principals. The signature below of parents and students indicates your acknowledgement and acceptance of the provisions of this Student Code of Rights and Responsibilities. Students who adhere to this Code of Rights and Responsibilities will enjoy the privilege of being part of Congregation Ner Tamid's Religious School community.
